

CHALAIS

The commune of Chalais is composed of 3 villages, Chalais, Réchy and Briey and one resort, Vercorin. This village rich in culture and history was founded by the people of Vercorin who, for convenience, went down to the plain to cultivate their vines. For nature lovers, take a walk along the Bisse de Ricard, which offers a magnificent promenade above the Rhone plain. On this route, you will have the opportunity to take a break at the Arche des Crétilons, also accessible by car, and to discover the farm animals. Chalais will seduce you with its reputation for liveliness. Indeed, with its many local societies, the village is always lively.
